---	--------	------------------------------------

1/Fill in the blanks with the right pronoun(subject/ object/reflexive)

I have a good friend named Tom. _____ is always there for me when I need help. Last weekend, _____ went hiking together. Tom and I both enjoyed it. We walked for hours, and we didn't even notice how tired we were. Tom told me that he feels very happy when he is with _____. I know I can trust Tom. He always listens to me when I talk about my problems. Sometimes, I try to solve the problems by _____, but Tom is always ready to help me. I think it's important for friends to help each other, even when things are difficult. The best part is that we can be ourselves. I don't feel worried about being judged by Tom. We both know that we can share anything with each other. Sometimes, we make jokes about ourselves, and we laugh at _____. I'm grateful to have a friend like Tom. He has been with me through good times and bad. I know that he will always be there for _____. He is a true friend.

2/Complete the following paragraph with adjectives from the box

Generous/ funny/ thoughtful/ close/ kind

My name is Fred, and I have some great friends. One of them is Sarah, who is always so _____. She is very supportive and never hesitates to help others. Another friend of mine is John, who is extremely _____. He always makes us laugh with his jokes and fun personality. I also have a friend named Lucy, who is really _____. Whenever someone has a problem, she listens carefully and gives thoughtful advice. We all enjoy spending time together because we are a very _____ group of friends. We trust each other completely and know that we can always count on one another. In our friendship, we are all _____ and treat each other with respect.

3/Fill in the blanks with adjectives from the box

Stubborn / jealous/ generous / lazy / trustworthy / courageous / honest / arrogant/ selfish/ independent / friendly/ loyal/ compassionate/ open-minded/ reliable/ deceitful/ modest / kind-hearted / pessimistic / impulsive/

- _____ A person who tells the truth and doesn't lie.
- _____ A person who thinks only about himself and doesn't share.
- _____ A person who always helps others and cares about their feelings.
- _____ A person who thinks he/she is better than everyone else.
- _____ A person who gives and shares freely with others.

Water is one of the most vital resources on Earth, but it is increasingly under threat (due to) pollution and scarcity.

Water pollution occurs when (harmful) substances are introduced into water bodies.

them, we can take simple actions, such as using clean (energetic) _____ reducing waste, and planting trees. We can also use( little) _____ plastic and recycle more. These small changes can make a big (different) _____ in protecting our planet for future generations.

2/Fill in the blanks with the missing words

climate/may/ promote/ by/ more/ congestion/ get/ restricted/use

A city without cars is a place where cars are either banned or _____, and people _____ walking, cycling, or public transportation to _____ around. This helps reduce pollution, traffic _____, and noise while making the city _____ sustainable and healthier. Some cities, like Venice in Italy, are already car-free, with people traveling on foot or _____ boat. Cities like Copenhagen and Ghent have also created car-free zones to _____ cycling and walking. These changes make urban areas cleaner, safer, and better for the environment. More cities adopt this idea in the future to fight _____ change and improve the quality of life.

3/Circle the correct alternative.

Water is one of the most vital resources on Earth, but it is increasingly under threat (thanks to/due to/since) pollution and scarcity. Water pollution occurs when (harm/harmless/harmful) substances, such as chemicals, plastics, and waste, are introduced into water bodies like rivers, lakes, and oceans. This contamination makes water unsafe (to/ for /at) drinking, cooking, and sanitation, posing serious health risks to both humans and wildlife. Water scarcity refers to a situation (where/who/that) the demand for water exceeds the available supply. This can be due to factors like climate (changes/changing/change), population growth, and mismanagement of water resources. In some parts of the world, clean water is becoming so scarce that people are forced to travel long distances to find it, or they have to rely on unsafe water sources that increase the risk of disease. It is crucial for governments, organizations, and individuals to take (effort/action/deed) to prevent water pollution and conserve water resources. Some ways to help include (increasing/improving/reducing) waste, using water-saving technologies, and supporting policies that protect water quality.

Daniel Keep spending quality time with your dad and be open with your feelings.

Save our planet

Our planet Earth is very special because it is the only home we have. We need to protect it so future generations can live happily. Today, the Earth faces many problems. One big problem is pollution. Pollution happens when we throw trash on the ground or into the water. Pollution makes the air dirty and harms animals and plants. Another problem is cutting down too many trees. Trees are important because they clean the air and give us oxygen. When we cut too many trees, the air becomes bad and animals lose their homes. Climate change is also a big issue. It causes storms, floods, and droughts. To save our planet, we must do many things. We should reduce waste by recycling paper, plastic, and glass. We must save water by closing taps when we don't use them. Using energy carefully by turning off lights and machines helps too. Planting trees is a great way to protect the environment. We can also walk or ride a bike instead of using cars all the time. If everyone helps, we can keep our planet clean and beautiful. Saving the Earth is the responsibility of all people.

Save Our Planet

Today, our planet is in great danger. Pollution, cutting trees, and using too many cars are destroying nature. The air is dirty, animals are losing their homes, and the weather is changing. We must protect our Earth before it is too late. We can help by planting trees, cleaning our streets, and recycling plastic and paper. At school and at home, we should not waste water or electricity. We can also walk or use bikes instead of cars. Every small action is important. If we all work together, we can save our planet and make the world a better place for us and for future generations.

Save Our Planet

Our planet is our home, and we must protect it. Today, Earth faces many problems like pollution, deforestation, and climate change. We can help by planting trees, saving water, and recycling. Small actions make a big difference. If we all work together, we can build a cleaner and greener world. Let's save our planet for ourselves and future generations.

7. Save Our Planet

1. Correct the words in brackets:

Our planet is facing many environmental problems, such as pollution and climate change. Pollution from cars and factories, deforestation, and other human activities harms the air, while plastic waste and chemicals pollute our oceans and rivers. Deforestation destroys forests that are important for both animals and the environment. One of the main causes of these problems is human activity. To help fix them, we can take simple actions, such as using clean energy, planting trees. We can also use less plastic, reduce waste, and recycle more. These small changes can make a big difference in protecting our planet for future generations.

Read the texts and answer the questions

Emma, 14 years old

I have a younger brother, and to be honest, we don't get on well most of the time. He's always making a mess in our room, and he teases me about everything, even the way I laugh. We often argue about who should clean or who gets to use the computer. But deep down, I know he's not that bad. Last week I was sick, and he made me a card. I was glad he did something nice for once.

Daniel, 13 years old

I get on well with my dad. We have a lot in common. We both love football, video games, and cooking. He's fun to be around, and we don't really argue. He even helped me when I was in trouble at school last month. He didn't get angry; he just talked to me and helped me fix it. I'm really glad we have a good relationship.

Sophie, 15 years old

My older sister and I are total opposites. She's super neat and I'm a bit of a mess. She says I'm too loud and calls me naughty when I play my music too late at night. We argue all the time, especially about clothes and who's taking too long in the bathroom. Still, when I had a bad day last week, she brought me chocolate and made me laugh. I guess she's not always annoying.

Jane, 16 years old

I didn't know I had such a loving family until I underwent surgery last month. Before that, I often thought they didn't care much. We argued sometimes, and I thought they were just busy with their own lives. But when I was in the hospital, everything changed. My parents stayed with me every day. My siblings called and even brought me little gifts. I felt supported, cared for, and never alone. That's when I realized that my family really loves me, although they never say it.

III. Writing (6 marks)

Correction

Pollution is one of the biggest problems our planet faces today. Air, water, and land pollution are destroying nature and harming animals and humans. It's time we take action to save our planet.

There are many simple things we can do. First, we should stop throwing garbage on the ground and always use a bin. We must recycle paper, plastic, and glass to reduce waste. Turning off lights and taps when not in use helps save energy and water. Planting trees and using bikes instead of cars can also reduce pollution.

Khawla Ettaieb

Let's work together as a team. If everyone makes a small change, we can make a big difference. The Earth is our only home – let's protect it!

The Text

Whitney's Story

(1) There was a time when Whitney didn't have a lot of friends. She was a bit shy and reserved. She never really wanted to be popular, but she did want to have a friend to share secrets and laughs with. She believed that friends are as important as family.

(2) When it was time to go to college, Whitney was quite nervous. But in the first week of classes, something happened that changed Whitney's life forever. In her English class, the teacher asked the students: "What is your goal for this class?" Most of the students said it was to get a good grade, pass the class or something similar, but Whitney said something entirely different. She said that her goal was to make just one good friend.

(3) So, one student came to Whitney and held out his hand and introduced himself. He said he wanted to be her friend. She smiled and stretched her hand out to take his and a friendship was formed.
